1. Introduction

The European Labour Authority (hereafter 'ELA') is committed to protect your personal data and to respect your privacy. ELA collects and further processes personal data pursuant to Regulation \(EU\) 2018/1725 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 23 October 2018 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data by the Union institutions, bodies, offices and agencies and on the free movement of such data (repealing Regulation (EC) No 45/2001).

This privacy statement explains the reason for the processing of your personal data, the way we collect, handle and ensure protection of all personal data provided, how that information is used and what rights you have in relation to your personal data. It also specifies the contact details of the responsible Data Controller with whom you may exercise your rights, the Data Protection Officer and the European Data Protection Supervisor.

The information in relation to processing operation 'ELA interactive online training platform for Concerted and Joint Inspections' undertaken by the European Labour Authority, Enforcement and Analysis Unit is presented below.

2. Why and how do we process your personal data?

Purpose of the processing operation: The Enforcement and Analysis Unit collects and uses your personal information to provide specialized training to effectively carry out concerted and joint cross-border inspections in order to promote a consistent enforcement of Union law in the area that is operated by the Authority.

In this particular case, ELA and MS employees will have access to a software-based learning management system, provided by an external contractor. The system does not require the direct link to personal data, but to data to:

- Grant access to the specific platform
- Provide training material and e-learning.

Your personal data will not be used for an automated decision-making including profiling.

3. On what legal ground(s) do we process your personal data

We process your personal data, because, according to Article 5(1) of Regulation(EU)2018/17125:

(a) processing is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in the Union institution or body;

(b) processing is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation to which the controller is subject.

Legal basis:

Regulation (EU) 2019/1149 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 20 June 2019 establishing a European Labour Authority, Article 11.

We do not process special categories of personal data, therefore Article 10 of the Regulation does not apply.

4. Which personal data do we collect and further process?

In order to carry out this processing operation the Enforcement and Analysis Unit collects the following categories of personal data:

Name, surname, organization, role/position, email address and country.

Your activity in the course will be monitored and a certification of attendance will be provided after its completion.

The participation in the training is voluntary, but once you have accepted to take part of the training, we need your personal data to comply with our legal obligations.

The provision of personal data is mandatory to meet a legal requirement: ELA Regulation. If you do not provide your personal data, we will not be able to fulfil our obligations.

We have obtained your personal data from your line managers through the Working groups Inspections.

5. How long do we keep your personal data?

The Enforcement and Analysis Unit only keeps your personal data for the time necessary to fulfil the purpose of collection or further processing, namely for one year after the specific training take place. After this year only aggregated data will be kept.

6. How do we protect and safeguard your personal data?

All personal data in electronic format (e-mails, documents, databases, uploaded batches of data, etc.) are stored either on the servers of the European Labour Authority or of its contractors.

ELA's contractors are bound by a specific contractual clause for any processing operations of your data on behalf of ELA, and by the confidentiality obligations deriving directly from the General Data Protection Regulation in the EU Member States ('GDPR' Regulation \(EU\) 2016/679.)

In order to protect your personal data, ELA has put in place a number of technical and organisational measures in place. Technical measures include appropriate actions to address online security, risk of data loss, alteration of data or unauthorised access, taking into consideration the risk presented by the processing and the nature of the personal data being processed. Organisational measures include restricting access to the personal data solely to authorised persons with a legitimate need to know for the purposes of this processing operation.

7. Who has access to your personal data and to whom is it disclosed?

Access to your personal data is provided to ELA staff responsible for carrying out this processing operation and to authorised staff according to the "need to know" principle. Such staff abide by statutory, and when required, additional confidentiality agreements.

ELA staff on the Enforcement and Analysis Unit will have access to the participants data on an "a need-to-know basis".

Line managers will have access to their staff data and the status of the training (completed or not).

External contractors will have access to the list of participants and their email in order to grant access to their training platform.

Please note that pursuant to Article 3(13) of the Regulation, public authorities (e.g. Court of Auditors, EU Court of Justice) which may receive personal data in the framework of a particular inquiry in accordance with Union or Member State law shall not be regarded as recipients. The processing of those data by those public authorities shall be in compliance with the applicable data protection rules according to the purposes of the processing.

The information we collect will not be given to any third party, except to the extent and for the purpose we may be required to do so by law.

8. What are your rights and how can you exercise them?

You have specific rights as a 'data subject' under Chapter III (Articles 14-25) of Regulation (EU) 2018/1725, in particular the right to access, your personal data and to rectify them in case your personal data are inaccurate or incomplete. Where applicable, you have the right to erase your personal data, to restrict the processing of your personal data, to object to the processing, and the right to data portability.

You have the right to object to the processing of your personal data, which is lawfully carried out pursuant to Article 5(1)(a) on grounds relating to your particular situation.

You can exercise your rights by contacting the Data Controller, or in case of conflict the Data Protection Officer. If necessary, you can also address the European Data Protection Supervisor. Their contact information is given under Heading 9 below.

Where you wish to exercise your rights in the context of one or several specific processing operations, please provide their description (i.e. their Record reference(s) as specified under Heading 10 below) in your request.
